Investment Manager's Report

If you had told me everything that would happen in politics and the global economy over the last nine months, I would have bet heavily on a bear market. At the beginning of the year, I was using my experience with Swine Flu and SARS as a guide; I was not overly concerned about COVID-19. That turned out to be wrong, as far as the properties of the virus were concerned and in terms of the success or failure of government policy to combat it. However, the markets have not punished my misplaced optimism. Indeed, being wrong on the facts has led me to being more right than wrong on the markets, but for totally the wrong reasons—so how and why have markets performed so well, given that the real world is doing so badly?

In the U.S., it's partly because long bond yields collapsed, which helps support valuations; indeed it propels valuations to startling levels in some stocks. It's also partly because people, living more virtual lives, ascribed more value to more virtual companies. And, I suspect, partly because bored at home, they resorted to day trading and momentum trading so that some part of the rise in the market was superficial to say the least. The truth of this latter conjecture appears to be borne out by the fact that once stimulus was withdrawn, savings fell, yields rose and the momentum came out of the equity market.

In China, the markets have also celebrated a strong year so far. However, this success is perhaps more due to the success in controlling the virus' spread. There may be controversy around China's numbers but, in our view, China has more experience with virus outbreaks and reacted to COVID-19 in a more disciplined manner. Using the experience of SARS and Swine Flu as a guide to action has actually been quite useful and China's economy has revived to something closely resembling normality. I am tempted to therefore start my expectations of the next 12 months in China with my expectations as they were in late 2019—a moderate reflationary environment is likely to support faster earnings per share growth. China looks well placed.

In other parts of Asia, though, we have seen countries such as Japan, who have had great success against the virus but whose equity markets have not done quite as well as China. Perhaps this is due to the fact that Japan has had several years of stronger earnings growth relative to GDP and the cycle may be getting a bit old. Nevertheless, we were still able to find strong performance among the smaller companies. And there are countries such as India, who have struggled with the virus and whose markets have been less buoyant than the rest of the world, but nevertheless appear to have done far better than could reasonably have been expected. All of this leads me to suspect that many investors have been quick to write off 2020, to see through it to a more normal life in 2021. They have been patient, given the low yields on offer to fearful money.

Across our strategies, the weightings in China have risen markedly. This may in part be due to outperformance but is also because we generally see better fundamental backing for current valuations in China than we do in the rest of the region and the rest of the world. Because of this fundamental backing, Chinese equities seem less prone to possible disappointment surrounding any return to normality than markets in the U.S., Europe, or other parts of Asia.

Not yet fully convinced of China's underlying strength perhaps, international investors have only recently moved back into Chinese equities. I suspect that the overall environment was not conducive to looking outside the home country—both in terms of fear over the world's problems and excitement over the momentum in popular tech stocks. It may also have been because of concerns about U.S. – China relations and the potential for increased tension during the U.S. election in November. Now, however, investors appear to be accepting that whatever the outcome of the election, tensions are likely to lessen due to either a decrease in rhetoric or a containment policy more focused on issues of democracy and human rights. The direct impact on businesses, both U.S. and Chinese, may therefore be less extreme. Economics seems to be exerting its natural dominance over politics once again.

Which leaves us with the question of how the health care and tech sectors might behave given their strong run-up and the degree of speculation in these stocks. Well, first I note that the degree of speculation is likely greater in the U.S., given the lower yields and the fiscal and monetary stimulus. Second, is the fact that one person's speculation is another's risk-taking. It seems that many of the new companies in Asia are beneficiaries of structural changes that may be enduring. For example, China enjoys a more virtual everyday life more easily and naturally compared to the U.S. as China leaps technologies and accepts mobile platforms, for example, more quickly. Or in health care, where new companies in China offer real innovation compared to the cheap generic manufacturing of the past. So, whereas there may be speculation, there will be long-term winners, too. It's a hard balance to strike but we devote much of our resources to endeavor the right balance and to identify secular growth companies rather than will-o'-the-wisps.

That is where our focus remains: on the companies. It's been a year dominated by macro. However, at least in the case of this investor, macro would have been a poor guide to correct decisions and good outcomes. Our team of investors continues to concentrate on the businesses and the people who run them. We may have had to stretch our imagination about the possible futures of many of these businesses, but we always try to relate that imagination to the concrete facts about successful business models that we see all around us. We are excited for the further evolution of Asia's markets and ready for the challenge of navigating them.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A) PRESENTATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Luxembourg law and regulations relating to UCITS and generally accepted accounting principles in Luxembourg.

B) COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Combined Financial Statements equal the sum of the financial statements of all Sub-Funds.

The Combined Statement of Assets and Liabilities and Combined Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets are expressed in USD. The currency of all Sub-Funds is USD and therefore there is no currency translation adjustment.

C) VALUATION OF THE INVESTMENTS IN SECURITIES AND MONEY MARKET INSTRUMENTS

The Fund's equity securities are valued based on market quotations or at fair value as determined in good faith by or under the direction of the Board of Directors of the Fund when no market quotations are available or when market quotations have become unreliable.

Market values for equity securities are determined based on the last sale price on the principal (or most advantageous) market on which the security is traded. If a reliable last sale price is not available, market values for equity securities are determined using the mean between the last available bid and ask price. Securities are valued through valuations obtained from a commercial pricing service or at the most recent mean of the bid and ask prices provided by investment dealers in accordance with the Fund's Pricing Policies.

Securities that trade in over-the-counter markets, including most debt securities (bonds), may be valued by other third-party vendors or by using indicative bid quotations from dealers or market makers, or other available market information.

Events affecting the value of foreign investments may occur between the time at which they are determined and the Fund's valuation point of 2:00 p.m. Luxembourg time. When such events occur, each Sub-Fund may apply a model-derived factor, as provided by an independent pricing service, to the closing price of equity securities traded on foreign securities exchanges. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Fund may determine not to fair value securities where it believes that the impact of doing so would not have a material impact on the calculation of a Sub-Fund's NAV on that day.

The Board of Directors of the Fund has delegated the fair value analysis and assessment to the Investment Manager's Valuation Committee (the "Valuation Committee"), subject to the Fund's Pricing and Valuation Policy and Procedures (the "Pricing Policies"). The Fund has retained third-party pricing services that may be utilized by the Valuation Committee under circumstances described in the Pricing Policies to provide fair value prices for certain securities held by the Fund. To propose the fair value price of the suspended securities, the Valuation Committee may use techniques such as analysis of the price movements of selected proxies / indices whose performance might indicate valuation changes of the suspended securities.

When fair value pricing is used, the prices of securities used by a Sub-Fund to calculate its Net Asset Value differ from quoted or published prices for the same securities for that day. All fair value determinations are made subject to the Board of Directors of the Fund's oversight.

D) NET REALIZED GAIN/(LOSS) ON SALES OF INVESTMENTS AND CHANGE IN UNREALIZED GAIN/(LOSS) ON INVESTMENTS

Net realized gain or loss on sales of investments are calculated on the basis of first in first out cost method of the investments sold. At period end, holdings in securities have been valued at their last available prices on the main market for the relevant security. The net realized gain or loss and net change in unrealized gain or loss are included within the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.

E) FORWARD CURRENCY EXCHANGE CONTRACTS

A forward currency exchange contract is an agreement to buy or sell a specific amount of foreign currency at a certain rate, on or before a certain date. Outstanding forward currency exchange contracts are valued by reference to the forward rate of exchange applicable to the maturity of the contracts.

The unrealized gain and loss are shown in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities under "Unrealized gain on forward currency exchange contracts" and "Unrealized loss on forward currency exchange contracts."

Net realized gain/(loss) and net change in unrealized gain/(loss) as a result thereof are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets under "Net realized gain/(loss) on forward currency exchange contracts" and "Net change in unrealized gain/(loss) on forward currency exchange contracts," respectively.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

F) INTEREST RATE SWAP AGREEMENTS

An interest rate swap agreement is a bilateral agreement in which each party agrees to exchange a series of interest payments for another series for interest payments (usually fixed/floating) based on a notional amount that serves as a computation basis and that is usually not exchanged. Dirty pricing is utilized for all interest rate swap agreements where the floating rate index resets daily.

The unrealized gain and loss as shown in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities under “Unrealized gain on interest rate swap agreements” and “Unrealized loss on interest rate swap agreements.”

Net change in unrealized gain/(loss) as result thereof is included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets under “Net change in unrealized gain/(loss) on interest rate swap agreements.”

In case of settlements of the interest rate swap agreements, the net realized gain/(loss) as a result thereof is included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets under “Net realized gain/(loss) on interest rate swap agreement.”

G) CONVERSION OF FOREIGN CURRENCIES

The books and records of the Fund are maintained in USD.

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are recorded at the current prevailing exchange rates on the transaction date. All assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into USD at the exchange rate as at 30 September 2020.

Conversion gains or losses resulting from changes in the exchange rate during the period and realized gains and losses on the settlement of foreign currency transactions are reported in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets for the current period.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of gains and losses on investments in equity securities that are due to changes in the foreign exchange rate from those that are due to changes in market prices of equity securities.

The accounting records and the financial statements of each Sub-Fund are expressed in USD.

Bank accounts, other net assets and market value of the investments in securities expressed in currencies other than the currency of a Sub-Fund are converted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. Income and expenses in currencies other than the currency of a Sub-Fund are converted at the rate of exchange prevailing at the transaction date.

Net realized gain and loss on foreign exchanges and net change in unrealized gain and loss on foreign exchanges represent: (i) foreign exchange gains and losses from the sale and holding of foreign currencies; (ii) gains and losses between trade date and settlement date on securities transactions and (iii) gains and losses arising from the difference between amounts of dividends and interest recorded and the amounts actually received.

H) COST OF INVESTMENTS IN SECURITIES

Cost of investments in securities in currencies other than the currency of a Sub-Fund is converted into the Sub-Fund's currency at the exchange rate applicable at purchase date.

I) INCOME

Interest income is accrued on a daily basis and may include the amortization of premiums and accretions of discounts. Bank and time deposits interest income are recognized on an accrual basis. Interest income is recorded net of withholding tax.

Dividends are credited to income on the date upon which the relevant securities are first listed as ‘ex dividend’ provided that the amount of a dividend is known with reasonable certainty. This income is shown net of any withholding taxes, except where the withholding tax has been received or is receivable.

J) FEE WAIVER

The Investment Manager may, for such time as it considers appropriate, choose to waive all or part of the fees that it is entitled to receive, or to reimburse a Sub-Fund for other expenses, in order to reduce the impact such fees and expenses may have on the performance of the Share Class. The Investment Manager will reimburse on a monthly basis the amount of the fee waiver or expense reimbursement to the respective Sub-Fund. Fees that have been previously waived and expenses that have been previously reimbursed may be recovered by the Investment Manager.

The waived fees are settled monthly on a net basis with management and administration fees and therefore they are presented as one line item in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities under “Management fees and administration fees payable.”

The amounts of the fees waived for the current period is separately disclosed as “Fees Waived and Expenses Reimbursed” in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.

K) USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

14. SWING PRICING

The Board of Directors of the Fund implemented a price adjustment policy in order to protect the interests of the Fund's Shareholders. The purpose of the price adjustment policy is to allocate the costs associated with large inflows and outflows to investors transacting that day, thereby protecting the long-term Shareholders from the worst effects of dilution. It achieves this purpose by adjusting the price at which deals in a Sub-Fund are transacted. In other words, Sub-Funds' prices may be adjusted up (when there are large net capital inflows) or down (when there are large net capital outflows) depending on the level and type of investor transactions on a particular day. In this way the existing and remaining Shareholders do not suffer an inappropriate level of dilution. The Fund will only trigger an adjustment in the price when there are net capital flows.

The Board of Directors of the Fund have applied partial swing pricing method for the period. Accordingly, rather than setting a single swing threshold with a single swing factor for each Sub-Fund, the Board of Directors of the Fund has chosen to deploy a more refined approach, with multiple thresholds and multiple factors. The application of swing pricing, the thresholds and factors may vary Sub-Fund to Sub-Fund. If on any Valuation Day the aggregate transactions in Shares of a Sub-Fund result in a net increase or decrease of Shares which exceeds such threshold preset by the Board of Directors from time to time for that Sub-Fund (relating to the cost of market dealing for that Sub-Fund), the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund will be adjusted by an amount not exceeding 2% of that Net Asset Value, which reflects both the estimated fiscal charges and dealing costs that may be incurred by the Sub-Fund and the estimated bid/offer spread of the assets in which the Sub-Fund invests. Once an adjustment is made to the price, that price is the official price for that Sub-Fund for all deals that day.

During the period ended 30 September 2020, China Small Companies Fund, Asia Credit Opportunities Fund, Asia ex Japan Dividend Fund and Asia Small Companies Fund have applied swing pricing.

Upon request, the Fund will also provide investors the impact of swing pricing on a day in which that investor has transacted, with an appropriate lag before such information is provided. Investors should be aware that the Board of Directors of the Fund may change the swing thresholds and swing factors at any time without notice to investors, so the information provided may not be indicative of the impact that swing pricing may have on future transactions in the shares of the Sub-Fund.

A periodic review is undertaken in order to verify the appropriateness of swing factor being applied.

² The Portfolio Turnover Ratio is calculated in accordance with the CSSF Circular 03/122 i.e. the aggregated sales and purchases less aggregated subscriptions and redemptions, divided by average net assets of the period. The portfolio turnover ratio may be negative as a result of shareholder transactions exceeding the investment transactions for the accounting period.

³ The Total Expense Ratio includes such fees as the Management and Administration fee, Domiciliation, Administration and Transfer agency fees, Professional fees, Depository fees and Taxe d'abonnement. The Total Expense Ratio reported is for the 12 month period ended 30 September 2020 and is annualised for periods of less than 12 months.

⁴ Effective 25 May 2020, the Sub-Fund changed its benchmark to a blended benchmark comprised of 50% Markit iBoxx Asian Local Bond Index and 50% J.P. Morgan Asia Credit Index. Prior to 25 May 2020, the Sub-Fund's benchmark was the Markit iBoxx Asian Local Bond Index. ⁵ Benchmarks are indicated for performance comparison only. Each Sub-Fund is actively managed and does not aim to replicate or track its benchmark. Consequently, the Investment Manager may freely select the securities in which it invests, and each Sub-Fund's portfolio composition and performance may deviate materially from its benchmark.
